How?

● Training of trainers – building capacities and sustainable resources in the communities (group of trainers on multiculturalism)

★ Multiplication of knowledge through interactive workshops with students in the high schools – increasing the awareness and motivation of the youth about multiculturalism; gaining theoretical and practical knowledge

● Mentoring support – teaching; transfer of knowledge, experiences and good practices; consultations; orientations; encouraging young people on civil activism and voluntarism;

★ Summer school on multiculturalism – encouraging development of creative and innovative ideas among young people; bringing together and connecting of young people from different ethnic background through exchanging of cultural values and searching of common interests; artistic expression and creation;

● Practicing in the community: "To be heard the voice of the youth" – the students from the high schools are implementing public actions in the community (identifying problems, planning, organizing and realizing actions)

● National conference on multiculturalism – exchanging experiences, sharing achieved goals, results and good practices; recommendations for finding long term systematic solutions; implementation of cooperation with local stakeholders and other involved parties in the community;

Establishing cooperation with: local and national relevant institutions – schools, Ministry of education and science, Bureau for development of education and citizen's associations.

We encourage and support development of participative democracy – citizen's activism in building peace and coexistence in the community.

We share common values
– let's cherish and respect them!

Let's create long-lasting bridges for connection and coexistence!
